

Dear Pig,

Well, it's me, your old Guard Duck. I finally made it to Paris with the girl of my dreams, Maura. It is the happiest I have ever been.

The only complication so far has been the arrival of my former associate, Mr. Snuffles, a resourceful cat who somehow followed us to France.

While Mr. Snuffles has promised to respect our privacy, I must say that at times he feels a bit like a third wheel.
